Toronto celebrates The Beatles. And the world is invited.

Pete Best

May Pang

Fred Seaman

It was 40 years ago today...
That the Beatles last performed in Toronto.
So we're celebrating. And the world is invited.

Come and meet fantastic guests like former Beatle drummer Pete Best; John's former 18-month companion May Pang; John's former personal assistant Fred Seaman; Denny Doherty of The Mamas and The Papas; Terry Sylvester of The Hollies and The Swinging Blue Jeans; former Beatles Promotion Manager Peter Bennett; Beatles associate Shaun Weiss; Beatles author Bruce Spizer; Beatles suits collector and tailor Russ Lease; Beatles autograph collector and exhibitor Frank Caiazzo; Beatles cartoonist Tom Halley; Beatles collector extraordinaire Jim Cushman; Beatles photographer Paul Saltzman; Beatles publisher Andrew Croft; Toronto Beatles hero Jerry Levitan; and more.

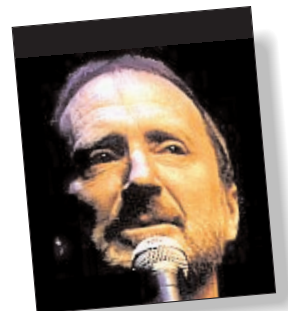

The Celebration features two live concert performances by 1964 The Tribute® — the best Beatles tribute band in the world — in the Queen Elizabeth Theatre, as well as six convention performances by The Fab Four and Hal Bruce.

Want more? Celebrity autograph and photography sessions. Over 100 vendors in a Beatles marketplace. World class museum exhibits. An authentic Beatles stage set up. An audio-visual room for photos and slide presentations. A British Invasion fashion show. A singalong pit. The Magical Mystery Bus Toronto Tour.

Join us this fall. Advance daily admission is only $20.
It will be the Beatles weekend to remember!
